

In 1989 she graduated from the University of Palermo with Professor Maisano, with a thesis titled “I valori mobiliari”.

In 1993 she obtained her license from the Court House in Palermo to practise as a law profession.

She is an advocate in the Supreme Court.

She is an expert in Economy Criminal Law, particularly concerning Economy and Criminal Tax Law, as well as Tax Law.

She has gained a considerable experience as a business consultant for companies and Insurance companies, in the field of Corporate Criminal Law, Tax Law and Money Laundry.

She is an adjunct professor in the Master course Tax Law at the Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore in Milan, for the subject of Criminal Law Tax, delivered by the Department of Business Economics.

She is a lecturer of Customs Criminal Law in the of High Specialisation course in Customs Law and Excises in the same university.

She is assistant to the chair of Tax Law in the Faculty of Law at the University of Palermo.

Since 2006, she has been a lecturer of Corporate Criminal Law for Roland Italy, situated in Milan.

Every year since 2012, she has taken part by teaching in English, on behalf of the University of Palermo DEMS, in the International Symposium of Economic Crime which takes place at the University of Cambridge.

She is a lecturer and a conventioner for the Uncat School, for the Association of Chartered Accountants (Ordine dei Dottori Commercialisti) and accounting experts of Palermo, as well as the UGRC Association of Chartered Accountants and Accounting experts of Milan, for the Università Statale in Milan, Criminal Departmento, in the course of High Specialisation for lawyers in Criminal Law G. Marinucci, for the Università Statale di Palermo, and for the Order of Lawyers of Palermo and Milan.

She is a lecturer for a number of corporate bodies and financial institutions in in-house trainings.

She works with the Faculty of Economics and Commerce of the University of Palermo, concerning the subject of Criminal Tax Law, Commercial and Financial.

She is regularly invited by the faculty board to carry out the scientific verification study plans for the Faculty of Law and Economics of the LUMSA University of Palermo.

She is a delegation chairman for Palermo, Western Sicily of the European Union of Lawyers.

She is a coordinator of the scientific committee of the Chamber of the Tax Lawyers of Palermo, of which she is a senior partner.

She is a partner of the Criminal Chamber of Milan, as well as of the Ambrosoli Studies Center, and of the Criminal Tax Center in Turin, besides being the coordinator of the Criminal Tax Law Center work group in Palermo.

She is a member of the scientific committee and lecturer in the Biennial course of specialisation of European Union Law, at the Università Statale in Milan.

She is also a member of the UNCAT Arbitration Board, in Rome.

She is a consultant of a number of law offices in Milan, Turin and Palermo.

Since 2016, she has been performing with specificity, courses and lectures in the BLOCKCHAIN Law including the connected matters, by developing study projects, also in English, for training institutions as well as the DEMS, Department of Political Science and International Relations of the University of Palermo.

She graduated on 16 October 2019, with Prof. Antonello Miranda, from the University of Palermo in International Relations and specialising in “International Trade”. The title of her thesis is “Digital Citizenship, the Estonia case”.